

Shepherd's Crook wrought iron table lamp

Product Code: SLSHEPCTL460

This solid, hand forged table lamp is reminiscent of the classic shepherds crook synonymous with the area of the Pennines around our forge and echoes the design of our matching curtain pole finials and fireside companion sets. Featuring distinctive hand-forged steel shepherd's crook legs and scroll top decorative details, it is designed and made by skilled blacksmiths in our rural Yorkshire forge. A sturdy and elegant shape, this lamp is available in a traditional black waxed steel and fits wonderfully in to a cottage style sitting room or farmhouse bedroom. We feel the lamp is best suited to a simple round shade around 35cm diameter. The standard fitting is BC22 for a bayonet bulb. A matching floor lamp and a smaller version are also available.
