

Cumberworth - wrought iron ceiling and wall light

Product Code: PLCUMBERWORTH

Our bulkhead-style light is suitable for both ceiling and wall mounting. The wrought iron rim hand-decorated with our textured, linear design is fixed with four smooth sphere thumbscrews. Light comes complete with our signature handmade opal white domed glass panel - (please note - subtle variances may occur in each piece of glass). Behind the glass we have fitted an integral LED panel offering a diffused cool light. This piece is great for entrance hallways or living rooms where a minimal decorative ceiling light is required. Overall diameter 325mm and depth 80mm.
